

Business Professor Needed

We are a well-established institution of Christian higher education that is seeking instructors to teach in and help develop our academic programs in the Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Master of Business Administration (MBA). We offer degrees in a variety of faith-based programs such as Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies, Master of Divinity, Associate of Science in Nursing, Bachelor of Music, Master of Music, and Doctor of Ministry.

We currently seek faculty to teach in the Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Master of Business Administration classes. We seek to fill both part time and full time positions. Various fields of expertise are welcome. MBA degree is required for Bachelor program but Ph.D. or Doctor of Business Administration is preferred for MBA classes. Applicants without the appropriate credentials or qualifications will not be contacted for an interview.

Please send Curriculum Vitae or resume with a cover letter explaining your teaching philosophy and professional goals, as well as academic transcripts. A more complete application will be required of those who are contacted for interviews. Earlier submissions will be given priority. Job opening is valid until sufficient positions are filled. Salaries are competitive or commensurate with experiences.

We are an equal opportunity employer. Email your resume, transcript and related documentation to oikosuniv.ir@gmail.com or send it to:

ATTN: Sabrina Yoon, HR Director

7850 Edgewater Dr. Oakland, CA 94621.

Only serious applicants are welcome to apply. Please do not contact job poster about other services, products or commercial interests. Deadline: position open until it is filled.
