

ESL Instructors Needed

We are an established institution of higher education in Oakland, California. We are seeking ESL instructors to teach in and help develop our ESL programs. We have been successful as an institution of Christian Higher education offering degree programs leading to bachelor, master and doctor in theology, ministry, music.

We currently seek faculty to teach and develop ESL program. We currently seek to fill part time positions. A master's degree or higher in one's field of expertise is required. ESL and TESOL are welcome. Applicants without the appropriate credentials or qualifications will not be contacted for an interview.

Please send Curriculum Vitae or resume, Transcripts and Copy of diploma with a cover letter explaining your teaching philosophy and professional goals. A more complete application, including official transcripts, will be required of those who are contacted for interviews. Earlier submissions will be given priority.

We are located near the Bay area and the city of Oakland where you can enjoy working with brilliant people from around the world. Competitive salary! We are an equal opportunity Employer. Email your resume, transcript and related documentation to info@oikos.edu or send it to:

ATTN: HR Department
7901 Oakport St. Suite 3000, Oakland, CA 94621.

Only serious applicants are welcome to apply. Please do not contact job poster about other services, products or commercial interests. Deadline: position open until it is filled.